

FUNDRAISING

It's easier to sell yearbooks
WHEN PRICE is more affordable.

WITH A LITTLE BIT OF FUNDRAISING,
you can get the PRICE DOWN to a level that parents will be happy with or may be able to offer one to every student FOR FREE!
It's up to you and your team! Selling ads is a GREAT WAY to help fund your yearbook.

YEARBOOK CONTESTS

Enter into Inter-State Studio's Yearbook Legacy Contest for your chance to WIN $500 to put toward your yearbook program. Go online to find out more about the rules and regulations and submit your book TO WIN!

HOST A SCHOOL CARNIVAL

Proceeds from TICKET SALES will go toward your yearbook, and you will have a GREAT TIME. If you all work together and pool your resources, you can come up with some inexpensive games to play. Ask LOCAL BUSINESSES and the community to donate small prizes.

HAVE A CAR WASH

This TRIED AND TRUE fundraiser has stood the test of time. It's a great summer activity to help you build up your budget.

HOLD A SILENT AUCTION

Have it take place during a BIG GAME or event at your school. You can rely on LOCAL BUSINESSES to provide merchandise if you give them ad space on the table. It's a win for everyone!

PLAN A 5K

There are MANY THEMES you can use for a 5K and it doesn't have to cost you much at all! Collect the registration fees for your yearbook program.

CREATE SOMETHING TO SELL

Have each student bring in a family recipe to include in a SCHOOL COOKBOOK, hold a BAKE-SALE, or auction off ARTWORK created by the students themselves.
